We invite you to pass the Fellowship Folder located at the end of the pew.

*CALL TO WORSHIP

We greet you with shouts of praise our Living Christ.
You lead us by your loving hand, your mercy surrounds us, and your love sustains us.
You are the rock, the foundation upon which all life finds its meaning.
Your resurrection is the gift of life to grow into who we are created to become, Your sons and daughters who are called by your name.
You challenge us to stretch out our own hands, to engage our hearts to live into our resurrection faith.
We hear your call, fill us with faith, faith overflowing so we may follow you.

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation or distress, or persecution or famine, or nakedness or peril or sword?

No! In all things we are more than conquerors through the One who loved us. We are sure that neither death nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. Thanks be to God! Amen.

MOMENT OF
SILENT REFLECTION

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

*PASSING OF THE PEACE

(Children, kindergartners through third grade, are invited to exit the Sanctuary for Children's Worship. Children will return to reserved pews in the Sanctuary at the close of worship.)

WE HEAR THE WORD PROCLAIMED

SCRIPTURE
John 21:1-19

Afterward Jesus appeared again to his disciples, by the Sea of Galilee. It happened this way: Simon Peter, Thomas (also known as Didymus), Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two other disciples were together. "I'm going out to fish," Simon Peter told them, and they said, "We'll go with you." So they went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. Early in the morning, Jesus stood on the shore, but the disciples did not realize that it was Jesus. He called out to them, "Friends, haven't you any fish?" "No," they answered. He said, "Throw your net on the right side of the boat and you will find some." When they did, they were unable to haul the net in because of the large number of fish. Then the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" As soon as Simon Peter heard him say, "It is the Lord," he wrapped his outer garment around him (for he had taken it off) and jumped into the water. The other disciples followed in the boat, towing the net full of fish, for they were not far from shore, about a hundred yards. When they landed, they saw a fire of burning coals there with fish on it, and some bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish you have just caught." So Simon Peter climbed back into the boat and dragged the net ashore. It was full of large fish, 153, but even with so many the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." None of the disciples dared ask him, "Who are you?" They knew it was the Lord. Jesus came, took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time Jesus appeared to his disciples after he was raised from the dead. When they had finished eating, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?" "Yes, Lord," he said, "you know that I love you." Jesus said, "Feed my lambs." Again Jesus said, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" He answered, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus said, "Take care of my sheep." The third time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter was hurt because Jesus asked him the third time, "Do you love me?" He said, "Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you." Jesus said, "Feed my sheep. Very truly I tell you, when you were younger you dressed yourself and went where you wanted; but when you are old you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go." Jesus said this to indicate the kind of death by which Peter would glorify God. Then he said to him, "Follow me!" (NIV)

*DOXOLOGY #94 Praise God, from Whom All Blessings Flow ~ LASST UNSERFREUEN
Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise God, all creatures here below: Alleluia! Alleluia! Praise God, the source of all our gifts! Praise Jesus Christ, whose power uplifts! Praise the Spirit, Holy Spirit! Alleluia!
Alleluia! Alleluia!

*PRAYER OF DEDICATION

We lift these gifts to you our Living Christ, and not merely these gifts but our lives as well. You call us to live into the faith we proclaim; you invite us to seek our own salvation with fear and trembling. You call us to rise with you and live with singular intention. In this offering we extend not merely our resources, but all we are, into your hands to fulfill your ministry through our lives and all those who you will touch through us.
We humbly cry out our desire is there, but at times our faith falters, and in doing so we know you hear us and stretch out your hand to lift us onto our feet and deeper into your love. We lift these gifts to you our Living Christ. Amen.

CONGREGATIONAL CARE

Stephen Ministry

Life-changing . . .

“The Stephen Ministry program has helped me change my life. They have enabled me to commit myself to bettering my own life....It has shown me that God does care and that God's shoulders are broad and that it's ok to be mad at God and that God can take it.”

Could you or someone you know benefit from a Stephen Minister's help through a difficult time? If so, contact Judy Ingram (336-407-3986), Phil Ashley (336-766-0196), or Rev. Craig Ford (ext. 1353). Trained and caring help is available through Centenary's Stephen Ministry.

Funeral Planning

Centenary has developed a funeral planning kit that is designed to guide you through the maze of questions about who to call, planning the service and reception, and information about purchasing a columbarium niche, as well as other topics. These are valuable tools that families can use to make decisions during the stressful time of making immediate funeral plans, or when planning ahead. Kits are available for pick up at the church. Contact Sandra Gramley (ext. 1352)/sgramley@centenary-ws.org.

Samaritan Inn

On the second Friday of each month, volunteers from Centenary serve at Samaritan Inn. The evening begins at 6:15 with an orientation. Volunteers serve a meal to overnight guest, spend time in fellowship and then take shifts watching security monitors overnight. Before leaving at 7:00, volunteers help serve breakfast. This is an easy and rewarding way to engage in local missions. To participate, visit centenary-ws.org/sign-up. For more information, please contact Rev. Jeremy Pegram (ext. 1361)/jpegram@centenary-ws.org.

Betty and Jim Holmes Food Bank Garden

SUMMER SUNDAY SCHOOL

Summer is almost here and we can feel it in the air! It is a time of family vacations and visiting the places we love, as well as the time of year when many of our adult Sunday school faith formation classes slow down, with some even taking a hiatus until fall. This summer, we want you to enjoy the season and embrace life at its fullest. While you do, we want to offer you an opportunity to explore some of the great stories of our faith. Each week will dive into a new story and explore our connection within its message. Our children's Sunday school and our youth ministry will explore these same themes each week as well. Finally, during our worship services each week, our sermon focus will also center around these same themes tying it all together. During the Sunday school hour, Glenn, Jeremy and Bret will take turns leading us into these stories of our faith. Then, Allison Pegram will help us creatively express how our faith is grounded within them. We will begin on June 16. Come join us as we gather as a community to learn and grow together! The adult class will meet in Memorial Auditorium while the youth will be in The Haven and children on the second floor. You can find more information at www.centenary-ws.org/adult-formation. If you have questions please share them with us by contacting Rev. Bret Cogan at bcogan@centenary-ws.org.
