

CENTENARY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

REJOICE!
JAZZ INSPIRED WORSHIP

JULY 15, 2018 • 9:00 AM

FOCUS FOR WORSHIP:

This Sunday begins a new era of ministry for Centenary. If you are a bit curious, nervous, anxious, or (I hope) excited about the fact that you are receiving a new pastor, that is OK! I must confess to you that as your new pastor, I am a bit curious, nervous, and anxious, too. But overall, I am deeply excited to be appointed here as your pastor! Today in worship, we will explore what it means to be standing on holy ground. Our focus will be upon recognizing those moments when God is speaking to us and asking us to reach deeper in our souls than we thought possible and striving from that time forward to do the impossible for the sake of God's kingdom. I would be remiss if I did not share with you that I feel as if I am stepping onto holy ground this morning. As I spent time in the Sanctuary this week, I could not help but think about the revered ministers of the past and of my youth, along with colleagues of mine who have preached within, and lived their sermons outside, the walls of this sacred space. They have left their mark on each of us, this congregation, this city, and the world. As we begin our journey together, pastor and congregation, I look forward to hearing how, and seeing where, God will call us to go and what God will call us to do.

WE HEAR THE WORD PROCLAIMED

SCRIPTURE
Exodus 3:1-12

Now Moses was tending the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian, and he led the flock to the far side of the wilderness and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. There the angel of the LORD appeared to him in flames of fire from within a bush. Moses saw that though the bush was on fire it did not burn up. So Moses thought, “I will go over and see this strange sight—why the bush does not burn up.” When the LORD saw that he had gone over to look, God called to him from within the bush, “Moses! Moses!” And Moses said, “Here I am.” “Do not come any closer,” God said. “Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy ground.” Then he said, “I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.” At this, Moses hid his face, because he was afraid to look at God. The LORD said, “I have indeed seen the misery of my people in Egypt. I have heard them crying out because of their slave drivers, and I am concerned about their suffering. So I have come down to rescue them from the hand of the Egyptians and to bring them up out of that land into a good and spacious land, a land flowing with milk and honey—the home of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites. And now the cry of the Israelites has reached me, and I have seen the way the Egyptians are oppressing them. So now, go. I am sending you to Pharaoh to bring my people the Israelites out of Egypt.” But Moses said to God, “Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?” And God said, “I will be with you. And this will be the sign to you that it is I who have sent you: When you have brought the people out of Egypt, you will worship God on this mountain.” (NIV)

This is the word of God for people of God. Thanks be to God.
