PASSING THE PEACE

SCRIPTURE
Mark 12:28-34

One of the teachers of the law came and heard them debating. Noticing that Jesus had given them a good answer, he asked him, "Of all the commandments, which is the most important?" "The most important one," answered Jesus, "is this: 'Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.' The second is this: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no commandment greater than these." "Well said, teacher," the man replied. "You are right in saying that God is one and there is no other but him. To love him with all your heart, with all your understanding and with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself is more important than all burnt offerings and sacrifices." When Jesus saw that he had answered wisely, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And from then on no one dared ask him any more questions. (NIV)

This is the word of God for the people of God. Thanks be to God.

It's that time of year again. As we approach the Thanksgiving holiday, we invite you to take home a brown bag and fill it up with harvest gifts. Volunteers arrive at 6:15 pm on Friday and help serve dinner to guests, receive an orientation and participate in nightly devotions, socialize with and/or play games with guests, and then take two-hour shifts in pairs watching the security monitors overnight. Volunteers will get some sleep, help serve breakfast, and be done before 7:30 am on Saturday. If you would like to participate in this ministry visit centenary-ws.org/sign-up. For more information, please contact Rev. Jeremy Pegram (ext. 1361)/jpegram@centenary-ws.org.

SENIOR ADULTS

Veteran's Breakfast • November 9 • Memorial Auditorium

Our speaker will be Jule Spach, a true American Hero. As many know, Jule was a prisoner of war for almost four years after the plane that he was flying was shot down in Germany. Jule said he would be glad to tell the story one more time. It is a story you do not want to miss. Following the War he and his late wife Nancy were missionaries in Brazil. After returning home he wrote the book "Every Road Leads Home." This will be a wonderful time to hear a wonderful Veteran tell his story again, perhaps for the last time.

Luncheon • November 15 • 11:45 am • Auditorium

The speaker for the luncheon will be Phil Archer, the deputy of Reynolda House. The Reynolda House is one of the beautiful landmarks of Winston Salem, visited by thousands each year. The program will give everyone an opportunity to learn about the current activities at the home and receive any new information.

To register for both the breakfast and/or luncheon, please contact Charles Monroe (336-773-0446)/bycchasmonroe@yahoo.com.

Save the Date • November 15 • Bell Ringing
