"A FAITH THAT WORKS"
JAMES 2:1-17

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 2018
11:00 AM SANCTUARY

FOCUS FOR WORSHIP:

The Book of James is one of the shorter books of the Bible, yet I think it one of the most important. It speaks to how we might live as faithful followers. The passages contain important teachings for facing daily life and maintaining our faith. More importantly these lessons tell us how we are to incorporate the Christian way of being into our life. Our passage today looks at the tension point between the human tendency to show favoritism to those who look most like us and God's desire for us to love each other equally, without partiality. In addition to that we read how faith and good deeds go hand in hand.

~ The Reverend Dr. P. Glenn Kinken III

Thank you for worshipping with us today.

You are invited to be in a spirit of prayer and meditation.
Please silence all mobile communication devices.*

VOLUNTARY	Our Father, Who Art in Heaven ~ Felix Mendelssohn
GREETING & MISSION MOMENT	We invite you to pass the Fellowship Folder located at the end of the pew.
INTROIT	Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord (from Mass in E-Flat Major) ~ Franz Schubert
*CALL TO WORSHIP	Those who trust in the Lord shall never be shaken. Those who place their faith in God stand on firm foundations. Just as mountains surround Jerusalem, God's love and mercy surround God's people. Just as rivers flow through mountain ravines, God's mercy and compassion flow through us. Come! Let us worship the One who brings us peace.
*HYMN OF PROCESSION	There's a Wideness in God's Mercy ~ HYFRYDOL There's a wideness in God's mercy, like the wideness of the sea. There's a kindness in God's justice, which is more than liberty. There is no place where earth's sorrows are more felt than up in heaven. There is no place where earth's failings have such kindly judgment given. For the love of God is broader than the measures of the mind. And the heart of the Eternal is most wonderfully kind. If our love were but more faithful, we would gladly trust God's Word, and our lives reflect thanksgiving for the goodness of our Lord.
*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH	Praise and honor to the Father; praise and honor to the Son; praise and honor to the Spirit, ever blessed Three in One. Rapturous alleluias transport psalms and prayers before Your throne; hosts of angels join our worship! Glory be to God alone!

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

WE HEAR THE WORD PROCLAIMED

CANTICLE sung in Latin

Kyrie Eleison (from Mass in G Major) ~ Franz Schubert
Lord, have mercy upon us; Christ, have mercy upon us; Lord, have mercy upon us.

SCRIPTURE James 2:1-17

My dear brothers and sisters, how can you claim to have faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ if you favor some people over others? For example, suppose someone comes into your meeting dressed in fancy clothes and expensive jewelry, and another comes in who is poor and dressed in dirty clothes. If you give special attention and a good seat to the rich person, but you say to the poor one, “You can stand over there, or else sit on the floor”—well, doesn’t this discrimination show that your judgments are guided by evil motives? Listen to me, dear brothers and sisters. Hasn’t God chosen the poor in this world to be rich in faith? Aren’t they the ones who will inherit the Kingdom he promised to those who love him? But you dishonor the poor! Isn’t it the rich who oppress you and drag you into court? Aren’t they the ones who slander Jesus Christ, whose noble name you bear? Yes indeed, it is good when you obey the royal law as found in the Scriptures: “Love your neighbor as yourself.” But if you favor some people over others, you are committing a sin. You are guilty of breaking the law. For the person who keeps all of the laws except one is as guilty as a person who has broken all of God’s laws. For the same God who said, “You must not commit adultery,” also said, “You must not murder.” So if you murder someone but do not commit adultery, you have still broken the law. So whatever you say or whatever you do, remember that you will be judged by the law that sets you free. There will be no mercy for those who have not shown mercy to others. But if you have been merciful, God will be merciful when he judges you. What good is it, dear brothers and sisters, if you say you have faith but don’t show it by your actions? Can that kind of faith save anyone? Suppose you see a brother or sister who has no food or clothing, and you say, “Good-bye and have a good day; stay warm and eat well”—but then you don’t give that person any food or clothing. What good does that do? So you see, faith by itself isn’t enough. Unless it produces good deeds, it is dead and useless. (NLT)

This is the word of God for all God's people. Thanks be to God.

INVITATION TO OFFERING

OFFERTORY ANTHEM sung in Latin

Gloria in Excelsis Deo (from Mass in G Major) ~ Franz Schubert
Glory be to God on high, and on earth peace, good will to all. We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory: O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty. O Lord, the only begotten Son, Jesus Christ; O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us. For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord; thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Spirit, art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

*DOXOLOGY

#95 Praise God, from Whom All Blessings Flow ~ OLD 100th
Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise God, all creatures here below; praise God above, ye heavenly host; praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

*PRAYER OF DEDICATION

God of justice and impartiality, you teach us to treat others without favoritism—whether rich or poor, male or female, believer or non-believer. You call us to love our neighbors as we love ourselves. May today's offerings sow hope and help in your world, that our faith might be found alive and well, and that the needy may touch your love through our giving. Amen.

RECEPTION OF NEW MEMBERS

We give thanks for all that God has already given you and we welcome you in Christian love. As members together with you in the body of Christ and in this congregation of the United Methodist Church, we renew our covenant faithfully to participate in the ministries of the church by our prayers, our presence, our gifts, our service, and our witness, that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ.

Litany for Bible Presentation

Minister

It is the privilege of this congregation to present our third graders and kindergarteners with Bibles of their own that they may use in their studies in Sunday School and in their personal devotion time at home as well as with their families. The word of God found in the Bible connects us with our past, present and future. As a community of faith that surrounds and nurtures these children, do you pledge your support and prayers in helping them grow in their faith and in their understanding of the scriptures?

Congregation

We do. With God as our helper, we will help to make the scriptures a treasure within their hearts.

Minister

This book carries tremendous history, a history that is part of our identity as human beings, and part of what we are as a church. It is a story that gives meaning to our lives together. The biblical message can transform all of our human history- past, present, and future.

Parents

May this book enable you to dream today and may your dreams challenge you to create a better tomorrow. May this book create in you a spirit of courage, responsibility and hope. And may you become a bearer of its message of hope and love that overcomes all else.

Congregation

May God be with each of us as we read scripture and as we seek to know God more and more.

CONGREGATIONAL CARE

Positive affirmation . . .

"After I told my Stephen Minister those things, I was really nervous and dreading her response. I was worried that she would think I was an awful person. But instead, she put her arm around me and said, 'I'm sorry you had to go through that'. And that was a turning point for me. To go from fear of judgment to a positive affirmation of care and empathy – and even sorrow for what I'd been through – it was so meaningful. That's when I began to feel God's love again."

Could you or someone you know benefit from a Stephen Minister's help through a difficult time? If so, contact Judy Ingram (336-407-3986), Phil Ashley (336-766-0196), or Rev. Craig Ford (ext. 1353). Trained and caring help is available through Centenary's Stephen Ministry.

CHURCH COUNCIL

Church Council will meet on September 24 at 7:00 p.m. in Centenary's dining room. This is a regular monthly meeting, and all are welcome to attend.

As you know Channel XII is located here in Winston-Salem and has been very supportive of many volunteer efforts here in the city that are beneficial. Please register by contacting Charles Monroe (336-773-0446)/chasmonroe@yahoo.com.
