SCRIPTURE
Genesis 1:24-31

And God said, "Let the land produce living creatures according to their kinds: the livestock, the creatures that move along the ground, and the wild animals, each according to its kind." And it was so. God made the wild animals according to their kinds, the livestock according to their kinds, and all the creatures that move along the ground according to their kinds. And God saw that it was good. Then God said, "Let us make mankind in our image, in our likeness, so that they may rule over the fish in the sea and the birds in the sky, over the livestock and all the wild animals, and over all the creatures that move along the ground." So God created mankind in his own image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them. God blessed them and said to them, "Be fruitful and increase in number; fill the earth and subdue it. Rule over the fish in the sea and the birds in the sky and over every living creature that moves on the ground." Then God said, "I give you every seed-bearing plant on the face of the whole earth and every tree that has fruit with seed in it. They will be yours for food. And to all the beasts of the earth and all the birds in the sky and all the creatures that move along the ground—everything that has the breath of life in it—I give every green plant for food." And it was so. God saw all that he had made, and it was very good. And there was evening, and there was morning—the sixth day. (NIV)

This is the word of God for the people of God. Thanks be to God.

We return before the service is over. Pews are reserved in the front of Sanctuary. Children should be picked up there when the service has finished. Contact Rev. CONGREGATIONAL CARE

Stephen Ministry

Asking the right questions . . .

"It's just so easy to be with my Stephen Minister. He's just so tuned in to what I'm doing that he knows the right questions. He's not there to tell me what to do. He's there to get me to talk to myself until I discover what is necessary."

Could you or someone you know benefit from a Stephen Minister's help through a difficult time? If so, contact Judy Ingram (336-407-3986), Phil Ashley (336-766-0196), or Rev. Craig Ford (ext. 1353). Trained and caring help is available through Centenary's Stephen Ministry.

Funeral Planning

Centenary has developed a funeral planning kit that is designed to guide you through the maze of questions about who to call, planning the service and reception, and information about purchasing a columbarium niche, as well as other topics. These are valuable tools that families can use to make decisions during the stressful time of making immediate funeral plans, or when planning ahead. Kits are available for pick up at the church. Contact Sandra Gramley (ext. 1352)/sgramley@centenary-ws.org.

DAYBREAK/RESPITE CARE

Respite Care Needs Volunteers

One volunteer says "the satisfaction I receive from my time spent at DAYBreak far outweighs the efforts I put into the program. I realize I am always "in the moment" with the participants. This is their gift to me. I don't think about what happened yesterday or what I need to get done tomorrow. I am happily focused only on my friends at DAYBreak."

There are no special skills required to volunteer with the Respite Care ministry...just a caring and loving heart. A couple hours in the mornings or afternoon once a week would help out tremendously. Sharing in the conversation, helping to serve lunch, or just sitting quietly with a participant are gifts you could share. Contact Debbie Pilson at (ext. 1345)/dpilson@centenary-ws.org.

into the ark to keep them alive shall be male and female. 20 Of living to their kinds, and of the living to their kinds, of every creeping on the ground, according to its kind, it shall come in to you to keep with you every sort of living, and store it up. It shall serve you and for them." 22 Noah did this; as God commanded him. 23 And God said to Noah, "Go into the ark with all your household, for I have made you righteous before me in this generation. Take with you seven pairs of all the clean animals, and a male and a female, and seven pairs of the birds of the sky, male and female, to keep them with you on the face of all the earth. 24 For I will send rain on the earth forty nights, and every living thing that has the breath of life I will blot out from the face of the earth. And Noah did all that the Lord commanded him.

And it came to pass, when the ark was upon the earth, that Noah and his sons and his wife and his sons' wives went into the ark with them, of clean animals, and of unclean animals, and of birds, and of creeping on the ground. 2 Two and two, male and female, went into the ark with Noah, as God commanded Noah. 10 And the waters of the flood came up on the earth.

And it was in the sixth year of Noah's life, in the seventeenth day of the month, that all the fountains of the great deep, and the windows of heaven were opened. 2 And rain fell upon the earth forty days and nights. 3 On the first day, Noah and his sons, Shem and Ham, and Japheth, and Noah's wife, and the women which they had entered the ark with them, entered the ark with them, according to their kind, of livestock, of beasts, of creeping on the ground, and of every bird of the sky, male and female, came to Noah into the ark, two and two, male and female, as God commanded Noah.

Summer

AT CENTENARY

Great Stories of Our Faith

Summer is almost here and we can feel it in the air!

This summer, we want you to enjoy the season and embrace life at its fullest. While you do, we want to offer you an opportunity to explore some of the great stories of our faith. Each week will dive into a new story and explore our connection within its message. Our children's Sunday school and our youth ministry will explore these same themes each week as well. Finally, during our worship services each week, our sermon focus will also center around these same themes tying it all together.

During the Sunday school hour, Glenn, Jeremy and Bret will take turns leading us into these stories of our faith. Then, Allison Pegram will help us creatively express how our faith is grounded within them. We will begin on June 16. Come join us as we gather as a community to learn and grow together! The adult class will meet in Memorial Auditorium while the youth will be in The Haven and children on the second floor. If you have questions please share them with us by contacting Rev. Bret Cogan at bcogan@centenary-ws.org.
