LET US WORSHIP

Twenty-fourth Sunday after Pentecost • 11:00 am • November 4, 2018 • All Saints Sunday

THE COMMUNITY GATHERS

VOLUNTARY Before Thy Glorious Throne I Stand ~ Johann Sebastian Bach

GREETING & MISSION MOMENT We invite you to pass the Fellowship Folder located at the end of the pew.

INTROIT I'll Praise My Maker While I've Breath ~ OLD 113TH

*CALL TO WORSHIP We are surrounded by a cloud of witnesses.
Death has no dominion over them.
Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord,
For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

*HYMN OF PROCESSION #60 I'll Praise My Maker While I've Breath ~ OLD 113TH

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth; And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord: who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

*ACT OF PRAISE #702 Sing with All the Saints in Glory ~ HYMN TO JOY
Sing with all the saints in glory, sing the resurrection song! Death and sorrow, earth's dark story, to the former days belong. All around the clouds are breaking, soon the storms of time shall cease; in God's likeness we, awaking, know the everlasting peace.

*CELEBRATION OF THE SAINTS (Necrology is found on page 6.)

CONGREGATIONAL PRAYER
(Adapted from a prayer by Jean Murdoch)
O God, we give you thanks for the saints who have gone before us—those we remember and mourn today, and those in the great cloud of witnesses who were strangers to us on earth but will be kin to us in heaven. Help us to realize that we are part of each other, part of the whole world, intertwined as a net. Broaden our thinking, stretch our imagination; make us aware that, in both giving and taking, we are part of the whole. May we build upon the foundation of faith laid for us, seeking community that transcends time and space, constituted by your body, broken for us. Amen.

Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom. Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.

WE HEAR THE WORD PROCLAIMED

SCRIPTURE
Mark 12:28-34

One of the teachers of the law came and heard them debating. Noticing that Jesus had given them a good answer, he asked him, "Of all the commandments, which is the most important?" "The most important one," answered Jesus, "is this: 'Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.' The second is this: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no commandment greater than these." "Well said, teacher," the man replied. "You are right in saying that God is one and there is no other but him. To love him with all your heart, with all your understanding and with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself is more important than all burnt offerings and sacrifices." When Jesus saw that he had answered wisely, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And from then on no one dared ask him any more questions.
(NIV)

This is the word of God for the people of God. Thanks be to God.

SENIOR ADULTS

Veteran's Breakfast

8:30 am • November 9 • Memorial Auditorium

Our speaker will be Jule Spach, a true American Hero. As many know, Jule was a prisoner of war for almost four years after the plane that he was flying was shot down in Germany. Jule said he would be glad to tell the story one more time. It is a story you do not want to miss. Following the War he and his late wife Nancy were missionaries in Brazil. After returning home he wrote the book "Every Road Leads Home." This will be a wonderful time to hear a wonderful Veteran tell his story again, perhaps for the last time.

Luncheon • November 15 • 11:45 am • Auditorium

The speaker for the luncheon will be Phil Archer, the deputy of Reynolda House. The Reynolda House is one of the beautiful landmarks of Winston Salem, visited by thousands each year. The program will give everyone an opportunity to learn about the current activities at the home and receive any new information.

To register for both the breakfast and/or luncheon, please contact Charles Monroe (336-773-0446)/bycchasmonroe@yahoo.com.

Save the Date • November 15 • Bell Ringing
