PASSING THE PEACE

SCRIPTURE
Genesis 3:1-13

Now the serpent was more crafty than any of the wild animals the Lord God had made. He said to the woman, "Did God really say, 'You must not eat from any tree in the garden'?" The woman said to the serpent, "We may eat fruit from the trees in the garden, but God did say, 'You must not eat fruit from the tree that is in the middle of the garden, and you must not touch it, or you will die.'" "You will not certainly die," the serpent said to the woman. "For God knows that when you eat from it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil." When the woman saw that the fruit of the tree was good for food and pleasing to the eye, and also desirable for gaining wisdom, she took some and ate it. She also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it. Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realized they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made coverings for themselves. Then the man and his wife heard the sound of the Lord God as he was walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and they hid from the Lord God among the trees of the garden. But the Lord God called to the man, "Where are you?" He answered, "I heard you in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; so I hid." And he said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?" The man said, "The woman you put here with me—she gave me some fruit from the tree, and I ate it." Then the Lord God said to the woman, "What is this you have done?" The woman said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate."

Please be in prayer for the person God is preparing to join the leadership of our children's ministry.

Sunday Morning Nursery

Children of all ages are always welcome in worship, however, each Sunday we offer nurseries for infants through pre-kindergarteners during all of our worship services as well as during Sunday School. Nurseries can be found in The Hub which is on the second floor just around the corner and up the steps from the East Transept of the Sanctuary.

Children's Worship during 9:00 & 11:00 am Services

We love having children of all ages in worship, however, we know that some of our young worshippers benefit from worship time designed especially for them! Children kindergarten through third grade are invited to participate in children's worship during our 9 am and 11 am services. Children begin the service with their grown ups and then before the sermon are invited to children's worship in room 216 with our children's ministry staff and volunteers. The kids return to the front rows of the sanctuary with our staff and volunteers before the end of the service. Grown ups can pick up their kids in these rows when the service has finished. If you have questions or would like to help with children's worship contact Rev. Kate May (ext.1331/kmay@centenary-ws.org).

Lego Sunday School!

This summer our rising first through sixth graders will be exploring the greats of the Old Testament in Sunday school. Each week as we encounter one of these greats we will engage with their story through legos! You won't want to miss a week of this great summer fun! The even better part? Our lessons line up with the lessons in the adult class as well as the scriptures anchoring worship each week. Enjoy sharing worship and faith building as a family! Would you like to help in children's Sunday school? Contact Rev. Kate May (ext.1331)/kmay@centenary-ws.org.

BACKPACK MINISTRY

School may be finished for the school year but our planning for the 2019-2020 school year has already begun! Did you know that Centenary supports 4 different schools in backpack/food pantry ministries? We partner with Brunson Elementary, Wiley Middle, Reynolds High, and the Winston Salem Street School to send home food with students over the weekend when they do not have access to school lunch and breakfast. It takes approximately $10,000/year/school to offer this ministry. Would you like to know more about this ministry and how you can support it? Contact Rev. Kate May (ext.1331/kmay@centenary-ws.org).

CONGREGATIONAL CARE

into the ark to keep them alive shall be male and female. Of living to their kinds, and of the going to their kinds, of every creeping on the ground, according to its kind, it shall come in to you to keep with you every sort of living, and store it up. It shall serve you and for them." Noah did this; God commanded him. God said to Noah, "Go into the ark with you all your household, for I have made you righteous before me in this generation. Take with you seven pairs of all the male and his mate; and of the animals that are not clean, the male and female, and seven pairs of the birds of the male and female, to keep them with you on the face of all the earth. For I will send rain on the earth forty nights, and every living thing that I have created I will blot out from the face of the earth. Noah did all that the Lord commanded him.

Four hundred years after the flood came upon the earth. And Noah and his sons and his sons' wives went into the ark to escape the flood. Of clean animals, and of birds, and of creeping on the ground, two and two, male and female, went into the ark with Noah, as God commanded Noah. And the waters of the flood came upon the earth.

And in the year of Noah's life, in the six hundredth and thirtieth year of the seventh century of the world, on the seventeenth day of the second month, the fountains of the great deep, and the windows of heaven were opened. And rain fell upon the earth forty days and nights. On the first day, Noah and his sons, Shem and Ham, and Japheth, and Noah's wife, and the sons of his wife, entered the ark with him, every beast according to its kind, and every creeping on the ground, and every bird, and every winged creature, came to Noah, two and two, male and female, as God commanded Noah. And Noah did all that the Lord commanded him.

Summer

AT CENTENARY

Great Stories of Our Faith

Summer is almost here and we can feel it in the air!

This summer, we want you to enjoy the season and embrace life at its fullest. While you do, we want to offer you an opportunity to explore some of the great stories of our faith. Each week will dive into a new story and explore our connection within its message. Our children's Sunday school and our youth ministry will explore these same themes each week as well. Finally, during our worship services each week, our sermon focus will also center around these same themes tying it all together.

During the Sunday school hour, Glenn, Jeremy and Bret will take turns leading us into these stories of our faith. Then, Allison Pegram will help us creatively express how our faith is grounded within them. We will begin on June 16. Come join us as we gather as a community to learn and grow together! The adult class will meet in Memorial Auditorium while the youth will be in The Haven and children on the second floor. If you have questions please share them with us by contacting Rev. Bret Cogan at bcogan@centenary-ws.org.
